Superman – Sample Knowledge Base for RAG Testing

1. Introduction to Superman

Superman is a fictional superhero from the planet Krypton. He is one of the most well-known superheroes in comic book history. His human identity is Clark Kent, and he lives on Earth.

Superman is known for protecting humanity, fighting crime, helping people in danger, and defending Earth against powerful enemies. He believes in truth, justice, hope, and helping others.

2. Superman's Origin

Superman was born on the planet Krypton, a technologically advanced planet. His birth name was Kal-El.

Before Krypton was destroyed, his biological parents decided to send him to Earth in a spacecraft to save his life. His spacecraft travelled through space and eventually landed on Earth.

A couple named Jonathan Kent and Martha Kent discovered the spacecraft and adopted him. They raised him in Smallville, Kansas.

As he grew older, Clark Kent discovered that he had extraordinary abilities because of his Kryptonian origin.

3. The Planet Krypton

Krypton was Superman's home planet. It was an advanced civilization with highly developed science and technology.

Krypton's environment was different from Earth's. Its destruction was the reason Superman was sent away as a baby.

Superman's Kryptonian heritage explains his unusual abilities under Earth's yellow sun.

4. Superman's Biological Parents

Superman's biological father was Jor-El, a respected scientist on Krypton.

His biological mother was Lara. Both parents wanted to protect their son from Krypton's destruction.

They placed Kal-El in a spacecraft and sent him to Earth, hoping he would survive and have a better future.

5. Superman's Adoptive Parents

Jonathan Kent and Martha Kent adopted Kal-El after finding his spacecraft.

They named him Clark Kent and raised him as their own son in Smallville.

They taught Clark important values such as honesty, kindness, responsibility, and respect for others.

Their guidance helped Clark understand that his powers should be used to protect people rather than control them.

6. Superman's Secret Identity

Superman's human identity is Clark Kent.

Clark works as a journalist at the Daily Planet, a newspaper based in Metropolis.

He maintains his secret identity to protect his personal life and the people close to him.

His superhero identity allows him to help people openly, while his Clark Kent identity helps him live among ordinary humans.

7. Superman's Superpowers
